

Kids' Sermon Notes

My Name: _____

Today is April _____, 2020

This is the last Sunday in April. Do you know the name for next month?

We've been away from each other for over a month. Let's pray that the Lord would allow us to meet safely very soon!

Today's sermon will focus on the relationship between to men. Can you unscramble their names?

The story today happened after the resurrection of Jesus. He sent

His disciples to Galilee to wait for further instruction.

While they were waiting one day, Peter said, "I'm going fishing!" And the other disciples with him said, "We're going with you!"

So off they went to fish. They probably used Peter's old boat. It might have looked something like this. They were fishing at night!

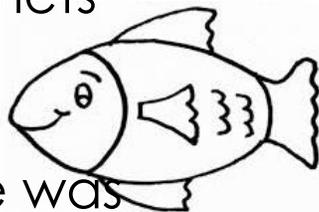

And guess what? They didn't catch any fish – not even one!

There was someone on the shore that morning. It was Jesus! He told them to cast the net on the right side and they would catch some fish.

If you look in the bible at John 21:11 you'll discover how many they caught in their nets

But Jesus knew there was something wrong with Peter.

Peter still remembered that he denied Jesus three times.

So Jesus came to help Peter get back on track with being a disciple. He wanted Peter to follow him. To do this, Jesus ask Peter three times if He loved Him. This was the same number of times that Peter denied Jesus. Peter told him, "yes." But it was hard for Peter to do this with the memory of his failure.

When Jesus and Peter finished talking, Peter knew that Jesus still loved him. He knew that Jesus would always love him.

Peter would become the leader for the other disciples and a very powerful preacher.

Even when we make mistakes – even big mistakes – Jesus wants us to know that He still loves us, He will forgive all our failures,

Jesus always wants us to
